Our People

Meet our fantastic volunteer duo: Therese and Walt.

Therese and Walt volunteer at the shelter, haul donations from Canada for the Sula pups and help with many projects. They are our seasoned flight angels who escort adopted dogs to their forever homes.

Walt is the force behind many projects at the shelter, such as making and installing kennel doors. The true metalsmith, and resourceful go-getter is always on the go with his hard-working wife Therese. We are privileged to have this dynamic duo as a part of the Sula Family.

Thank you for all you do for the Sula and the dogs in our care!

Project "Doors of Safety"

Sula's shelter is more than a temporary home for dogs seeking forever families. It is a sanctuary and an ever-evolving refuge where dogs' safety and wellbeing are a number one priority.

HOUSE OF HORRORS RESCUE

- February 4th marks a day of the House of Horrors Facebook post. The documented terror of the inhumane dog breeding is not for the faint of heart. Sula's rescue over 2 days brought all 26 abandoned and abused dogs to safety.
- 7 males, 14 females and 5 puppies have been rescued. Little puppy named Tiny passed away shortly after... The 25 survivors are learning to trust humans and are safe at last. Some are more willing to get near people and try delicious food from a volunteer's hand, while others need more time. Food, soft blankets, patience, and love will show the side of humans' unseen prior to the February 04th.
- Waiting list has been started for those who wish to adopt one of the rescued Chihuahuas or Alun – the only Pomeranian in the group.
